Make Canadians Happy

Paul Martin, Jack Layton, and Stephen Harper were all on a private jet together. Stephen Harper gets an idea. He says: "I'm gonna throw this $100 bill out the window, and make one Canadian really, really happy."

Paul Martin doesn't want to be outdone, so he says: "I'll throw these two $50 bills out the window, and make two Canadians really, really happy."

Jack Layton decides to go with the flow and says: "I'll throw these 100 loonies out the window, and make 100 Canadians really, really happy."

At this point, the pilot comes through the door and says: "If you three don't shut up right now, I'll throw all three of you out the window, and make 32 million Canadians really, really happy."

Quiz

Question: Name the Canadian Party that spent more tax dollars than any other in one year?

PULLING HAIR

A friend recently took his two-year-old daughter to the home-improvement store. His daughter quickly became tired of walking, so he let her ride on his shoulders. But soon after he began carrying her, she began pulling on his hair. Although he asked her kindly to cease pulling his hair several times, she kept on. Getting fairly annoyed, he began to severely scold her.

"But, Daddy," she replied, "I'm just trying to get my gum back."

BROKEN LAMP

A six-year-old son, calling his mother from his friend's house, confessed he had broken a lamp when he threw a football in their living room.

"But, Mom," he said, trying to brighten the conversation at least a little bit, "You don't have to worry about buying another one. Charlie's mother said it was irreplaceable."

SHARING

Catching her 3-year-old granddaughter in the act of eating her sister's snack, Susan confronted her about her conduct.

"Are you eating your little sister's grapes?"

"No," her granddaughter replied, "I'm helping her share."

The Political Difference

A florist goes to a barber for a haircut. After the cut, he asks about his bill and the barber replies, "I'm sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I'm doing community service this week." The florist is pleased and leaves the shop.

Next morning, when the barber goes to open, there is a thank you card and a dozen roses waiting for him at his door.

Later, a Liberal Party of Canada member comes in for a haircut, and when he goes to pay his bill the barber again replies, "I'm sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I'm doing community service this week."

The Liberal is very happy and leaves the shop.

Next morning when the barber goes to open, there is a thank you card and a dozen different books such as "How to Improve Your Small Business" and "Becoming More Successful."

Later, a member of the Conservative Party of Canada comes in for a haircut, and when he goes to pay his bill the barber again replies, "I'm sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I'm doing community service this week."

The Conservative Party member is very happy and leaves the shop.

Next morning when the barber goes to open, there is a thank you card and a dozen Bibles and letter of membership for a tax-deductible contribution.

Then a New Democrat Party member comes in for a haircut, and when he goes to pay his bill the barber again replies, "I'm sorry, I cannot accept money from you; I'm doing community service this week." The Democrat is very happy and leaves the shop.

The next morning when the barber goes to open up, there's a dozen N.D.P.er's lined up waiting for a free haircut.

And that, my friends, illustrates the fundamental difference between centre, right and left.

If you are right handed, you will tend to chew your food on your right side.

If you are left handed, you will tend to chew your food on your left side.
