Skinny Dipping

An elderly man in British Columbia had owned a large farm for several years. He had a large pond in the back, fixed up nice; picnic tables, horseshoe courts, and some apple and peach trees.

The pond was properly shaped and fixed up for swimming when it was built.

One evening the old farmer decided to go down to the pond, as he hadn't been there for a while to look it over. He grabbed a five gallon bucket to bring back some fruit.

As he neared the pond, he heard voices shouting and laughing with glee.

As he came closer, he saw it was a bunch of young women skinny-dipping in his pond. He made the women aware of his presence and they all went to the deep end.

One of the women shouted to him, "We're not coming out until you leave!"

The old man frowned and replied, "I didn't come down here to watch you ladies swim naked or make you get out of the pond naked."

Holding the bucket up he said, "I'm here to feed the alligator."

Moral: Old men can still think fast.

"As the trials of life continue to take their toll, remember that there is always a future in Computer Maintenance."

COMMUNITY EVENTS

Airdrie Family Theatre presents the hilarious comedy, "The Pirates of Jilligan's Island" at the Bert Church Live Theatre, Friday, January 30 at 7:30 pm, Saturday January 31 at 1:30 pm and Sunday, February 1 at 2:30 pm. "The Pirates of Jilligan's Island" is an uproarious spoof that blends the classic "Treasure Island" with the 1960's hit TV series "Gilligan's Island." When a bunch of feuding pirates sink their ship and swim ashore, they find themselves confronted by a rag-tag group of castaways who had left Hawaii for a three hour tour in 1963. The mayhem that ensues when these two cultures collide will keep audiences of all ages laughing until the final curtain. Bring the kids out and enjoy the show as our young cast (7-12 years old) embark on a hilarious adventure and learn that hard work and cooperation are some of the keys to success. For tickets call the Bert Church Live Theatre at 403-948-8824. Or visit any of their regular ticket outlets. You can also purchase tickets at the door.
